

Demonstrator Acceptance: Deadline June 15, 2007

I / We

[print name(s)]

hereby agree to demonstrate our system and contribute a short paper (5 pages) entitled:

to the International Cultural Heritage Informatics Meeting (ICHIM07), October 24-26, 2007 in Toronto, Canada

I/We understand that:

1) All demonstrators at ICHIM07 must submit written papers prior to the Conference. Papers are due by July 31, 2007, and must be submitted in the format specified on the conference web site.

Demonstrators who do not submit their paper in the appropriate format, by the deadline, and using the on-line tools, will forfeit their place on the program.

2) Registration for ICHIM is limited. At least one demonstrator must register for the full conference by June 15 (the early registration deadline) in order to ensure our place in the program. Registration is transferable to another author, but at least one author of each accepted demonstration paper must attend the full meeting.

3) All papers will be published. All co-authors must agree to the terms of the ICHIM Copyright Agreement referenced by the paper guidelines. Demonstrators accepting slots in the program are deemed to be assuring this agreement on behalf of all co-authors. Copyright forms are due with the final paper by July 31, 2007.
